FROM THE PRINCIPAL

OHS Families,

The first quarter is over. I hope your children have accomplished their academic and personal goals. If not, please reach out to us--we can help! I want all of our students to be successful. Effective communication between school and home is paramount. Please, if you have any questions or concerns, reach out to your child's teacher or to us in the office. Together, even if things got off to a rocky start, we can make significant academic and personal gains in the second half of the semester. As usual, thank you for trusting us to educate your children. -Dr. Kemsley

DEI Information

National Native American Heritage Month is celebrated each year in November. It is also referred to as American Indian and Native Alaskan Heritage Month. The National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) states, "The month is a time to celebrate rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and histories and to acknowledge the important contributions of Native people. Heritage Month is also an opportune time to educate the general public about tribes, to raise a general awareness about the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and in the present, and the ways in which tribal citizens have worked to conquer these challenges."

ANNOUNCEMENTS/EVENTS

OHS THEATRE DEPARTMENT presents

You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown

November 10, 11, 12 @ 7:00 pm | November 13 @ 2:00 pm

Charles Schulz's beloved comic comes to life in this classic musical. The whole gang's here: bossy Lucy is hopelessly in love with piano prodigy Schroeder who doesn't give her the time of day, perfectionist Sally is still mocking blanket-toting Linus, Snoopy is in the doghouse, and the loveable "blockhead," himself, Charlie Brown, is in rare form. We've also included a Peanuts ensemble made up of over 70 high school and elementary students. You're not going to want to miss this Okemos community event that is fun for the whole family. Purchase tickets at www.okemostheatre.com.

Visit Culver's of Okemos North MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH FROM 5-9 PM
