

INSTRUCTIONTravel and Study Abroad

The schools may, to the extent possible, explore opportunities independently, or in cooperation with recognized, reputable agencies, to offer interested students the study of other cultures abroad both during the regular school year and during the summer months.

Student travel and study abroad shall be voluntary. Students and staff shall follow district approved guidelines as documented in the student handbook when traveling under approval of the board of education.

Policy

Adopted: 01-12-76

Amended: 06-12-06

Reviewed: